Just checking in and hoping this doesn't wake you if you're asleep.

We have a back up plan to Roland if needed. Right now you can get there from Sallisaw. The road from FS to Roland will close in a couple hours. I can get there via I40 too.

But if needed I have my cottage in FS that we can go to.

How do your roads look for tonight and tomorrow?

No I'm up. I tried to sleep for a couple hours but my contractions stayed pretty consistent around 10 minutes. I think we will go through Sallisaw and make it just fine,
